FATEHCARE TIMES

Connecting our shared communities

November Edition

Vol: 01

WELCOME TO FATEHCARE TIMES CONNECTING OUR SHARED COMMUNITIES

Dear Readers, It's with immense pride and excitement that we introduce the first edition of Fatehcare

Times—a newspaper created to serve as the voice of our shared communities. In these pages, we bring together stories, insights, and discussions from across the many diverse and vibrant groups that make up our world. We are here to celebrate what makes each of us unique and, more importantly, to explore the ties that unite us all. Fatehcare Times was born from the belief that when communities come together, we become more resilient, understanding, and connected. Our goal is to highlight the many perspectives and experiences that shape our shared lives, giving a voice to everyone from local changemakers to everyday heroes. Through this newspaper, we aim to foster deeper connections and bridge the gaps between different groups, emphasizing the importance of unity in diversity. In every issue, we will bring forward the stories that matter most—stories of courage, hope, and compassion. Our coverage will span local news, cultural events, and inspiring profiles that shine a light on individuals and groups who are making a difference. By highlighting stories that touch every part of our shared communities, we hope to provide a source of knowledge and inspiration, while encouraging empathy and collaboration. Our Vision for Thriving Shared Communities. At Fatehcare Times, we envision a network of shared communities bound by understanding, support, and mutual respect. This newspaper is more than a publication; it is a collective effort to build bridges and create spaces for meaningful conversations. We believe that every community, while unique in its own way, shares common values of resilience, kindness, and hope. Through our stories and features, we strive to uplift each of these values, reflecting the spirit of unity that can turn neighbors into friends and shared experiences into shared futures. Our coverage will be broad and inclusive, featuring stories from all walks of life and highlighting the contributions of groups large and small.

Many of you may have heard about the recent changes to zoning regulations in various municipalities. These updates allow for increased density on properties, permitting up to four suites—and in some cases, even six—on a single lot. This presents numerous opportunities for property owners to maximize their investments. If your home is well-maintained, you might consider adding an additional dwelling unit on your property. Some properties may even qualify for mid-rise or high-rise developments, opening the door to significant growth potential. However, navigating these new laws can be quite complex, and many people may not yet be familiar with the specifics. Each municipality has its own set of by-laws, which adds to the intricacy of the situation. Our team has been closely monitoring these changes and is well-equipped to answer any questions you may have. If you're a property owner curious about your options, we invite you to reach out to us. We offer a complimentary preliminary investigation to help you understand the possibilities for your property. From there, we can assist you in arranging any necessary steps to move forward. Don't hesitate to contact us for more information!

US election polls: Who is ahead - Harris or Trump?

By The Visual Journalism & Data teams

Voters in the US go to the polls on 5 November to elect their next president. The election was initially a rematch of 2020 but it was upended in July when President Joe Biden ended his campaign and endorsed Vice-President Kamala Harris. At the moment, the polls suggest that Kamala Harris and Donald Trump are within a couple of percentage points of each other in all of the swing states - and when the race is that close, it's very hard to predict winners. Polls underestimated support for Trump in both 2016 and 2020. Polling companies will be trying to fix that problem in a number of ways, including how to make their results reflect the make-up of the voting population. Those adjustments are difficult to get right and pollsters still have to make educated guesses about other factors like who will actually turn up to vote on 5 November.

HOW THE INDIA-CANADA FALLOUT COULD AFFECT TRADE AND IMMIGRATION

After a bombshell accusation from Canadian officials this week - that they believe India government agents were linked to a campaign of murder and extortion in the country - diplomatic relations hit new lows. That rift is now raising questions over the impact it could have on the deep trade and immigration ties between both countries. Bilateral trade is worth billions of dollars, and Canada is home to nearly 1.7 million people of Indian origin. The breakdown of relations at this level is uncharted territory, and much of what happens next will depend on how they choose to move forward, experts suggest. Neither country has imposed tariffs or other economic forms of retaliation, but experts caution that this could change, and that a cooling relationship between India and Canada could hinder further economic growth. "The biggest challenge, particularly for business and citizens, is going to be uncertainty," Arif Lalani, a senior advisor at government consulting company StrategyCorp and a former Canadian diplomat, told the BBC. The two countries have been negotiating a bilateral trade deal on and off for over a decade, but Canada paused talks last year shortly before Prime Minister Justin Trudeau first made a public accusation against India. In September 2023, Trudeau said that Canada had "credible allegations" linking Indian government agents to the murder of Sikh separatist Hardeep Singh Nijjar, who was shot and killed in Surrey, British Columbia that June. India temporarily suspended visas for Canadian citizens shortly after, but that move was brief and it resumed visa processing in November. Trade ties between the two, meanwhile, remained as usual. Bilateral trade is around $8bn (£6.15bn), according to the latest fiscal figures from India's trade ministry. Canada's trade minister recently assured business owners that Ottawa does not seek to disrupt commercial ties with India. Still, with ongoing uncertainty, Mr Lalani said businesspeople from both countries could look elsewhere for opportunities. "People will be thinking twice in terms of expanding trade, or trying to build on what they already have," he said. Another big concern is how the rift will alter movement of people between the two countries. India has been Canada's top source of international students since 2018, and about 4% of Canada's overall population is of Indian origin. "The human connection between our countries is profound," Karan Thukral, a lawyer based in Delhi, told the BBC, adding that a big portion of his clientele are people eager to move to Canada.

He said many are now anxious about how the diplomatic tension could affect their plans to work or study in Canada. Immigration processing remains operational, Mr Thukral noted, but he has advised his clients to anticipate potential delays due to the reduction of diplomatic staff in both countries. Others, especially those in Canada with family in India, are anxious about India reinstating visa restrictions for Canadian nationals, he added. Any visa restrictions would come with business implications and could have a dampening effect on trade, tourism and investment, said Jeff Nankivell, president of the Asia Pacific Foundation of Canada. India hit back angrily, calling Trudeau's behaviour "cavalier" and accusing Canada of not presenting evidence to back up its accusations.

Earlier this week, India said that it "reserves the right to take further steps" in its response, while Canada's foreign minister Mélanie Joly said all options, including sanctions, are on the table. "The Indian government has already shown its willingness once to suspend the visa issuance, so it's possible they could do so again," he said, adding the biggest impact will be felt in Canada's large Indian diaspora community. Mr Nankivell said that he suspects the diplomatic situation will continue to evolve, and the fallout will be felt for a long time as Canadian police pursue legal action against those allegedly complicit in Mr Nijjar's death and other criminal acts. "That's going to continue to raise the temperature," he said. Four people have been arrested and charged in connection with Mr Nijjar's murder - all Indian nationals in their 20s - though it remains unclear if and how they are connected to India's government. A trial date for them has not yet been scheduled. Canadian police said this week there are "multiple ongoing investigations" into the alleged involvement of India government agents in "serious criminal activity" in Canada. On Wednesday, Trudeau doubled-down on accusations against India with sharp criticism of Delhi's alleged aggressive interference in Canada's sovereignty. But he also cautioned that he does not want to hurt economic and social ties. "We don't want to be in this situation of picking a fight with a significant trading partner, with whom we have deep people-to-people ties and a long history and are fellow democracies," Trudeau told a public inquiry looking into foreign interference in the country.

Moscow had high hopes for Trump in 2016. It's more cautious this time

By Steve Rosenberg

Piece of advice for you - never buy a huge amount of champagne unless you're absolutely certain it's worth celebrating. In November 2016, Russian ultranationalist politician Vladimir Zhirinovsky was so excited by Donald Trump's victory, and so sure that it would transform US-Russian relations, he splashed out on 132 bottles of bubbly down at the Duma, Russia's parliament, and partied away (in his party offices) in front of the TV cameras. He wasn't the only one celebrating. The day after Trump's surprise White House win, Margarita Simonyan, editor-in-chief of state channel RT, tweeted her intention to drive around Moscow with an American flag in her car window. And I'll never forget the moment a Russian official told me she had smoked a cigar and drunk a bottle of champagne (yes, MORE champagne) to toast Trump winning. In Moscow, expectations were high that Trump would scrap sanctions against Russia; perhaps, even, recognise the Crimean Peninsula, annexed from Ukraine, as part of Russia. "The value of Trump was that he never preached on human rights in Russia," explains Konstantin Remchukov, the owner and editor-in-chief of newspaper Nezavisimaya Gazeta.

Trump introduced the heaviest sanctions against Russia at that time.

By the end of his term, a lot of people were disappointed in his presidency.

What leaked US assessment of Israeli plans to strike Iran shows

By Frank Gardner

US investigators are trying to find out how a pair of highly classified intelligence documents were leaked online. The documents, which appeared on the messaging app Telegram on Friday, contain the US's assessment of Israeli plans to attack Iran. On Monday White House National Security Council spokesman John Kirby said President Joe Biden was "deeply concerned" about the leak. Officials have not determined whether the documents were released due to a hack or a leak, Mr Kirby said. For three weeks now, Israel has been vowing to hit Iran hard in retaliation for Iran's massed ballistic missile attack on Israel on 1 October. Iran says that was in response to Israel's assassination of the Hezbollah leader, Hassan Nasrallah, on 27 September. Military analysts say the phrasing used in the headings looks credible and is consistent with similar classified documents revealed in the past. Headed "Top Secret", they include the acronym "FGI", standing for "Foreign Government Intelligence".

The powerful Indian gangster pulling strings from behind bars

By Soutik Biswas

On Monday, Canadian police made a sensational claim. They alleged at a press conference that agents of the Indian government were using "organised crime groups like the Bishnoi group" to target leaders of the pro-Khalistan movement, which calls for a separate Sikh homeland in India. This was hours after both countries expelled top diplomats as tensions escalated over last year's assassination of a Sikh separatist on Canadian soil. Delhi dismissed the allegations as "preposterous", accusing PM Justin Trudeau of catering to Canada's sizeable Sikh community for political gain. The Canadian police were referring to Lawrence Bishnoi, a 31-year-old gangster from India, now back in the spotlight domestically and internationally. Indian police say his gang is allegedly linked to the killing of a prominent politician in Mumbai at the weekend - gunmen shot dead 66-year-old Baba Siddique near his son's office. Three suspects are in custody. An alleged aide of Bishnoi has posted on social media that the gang is behind the murder. Once among India's most wanted, Bishnoi has been in prison since 2015, now held far from his native Punjab state in Gujarat. Yet, the police believe his audacious influence endures. Bishnoi is the prime accused in the sensational murder of Sidhu Moose Wala, the popular Punjabi singer gunned down near his village in October 2022. In 2018, Bishnoi gained notoriety for threatening Bollywood star Salman Khan, accusing him of allegedly poaching two blackbuck antelopes - a revered species for Rajasthan's Bishnoi community to which Lawrence belongs. When he was produced in a court in Jodhpur city, he openly told the waiting media: "Salman Khan will be killed here, in Jodhpur... Then he will come to know about our real identity." Incidentally, Siddique, the murdered politician, was a close friend of the Bollywood star. In March last year, a news channel aired two interviews with Bishnoi from inside a Punjab jail, prompting an outraged high court to order an investigation.

How a high-security inmate managed phone interviews from prison remains a mystery. Federal investigators estimate Bishnoi continues to control a gang with 700 members across Punjab, Haryana, Rajasthan and Delhi, involved in extorting celebrities, smuggling drugs and weapons and carrying out targeted assassinations. His partner Goldy Brar, also a co-accused in the Moose Wala killing, runs the gang by remote control from Canada, say the police. Bishnoi faces more than 30 cases, with 19 currently being tried in court. "He runs his gang seamlessly from prison without needing to co-ordinate everything," says Gurmeet Chauhan, a senior officer in Punjab's anti-gangster task force. "Unlike other gangsters confined to a region, he thinks big." Bishnoi was born into affluence. His family is among the wealthiest in their village in Punjab, living in a spacious bungalow surrounded by more than 100 acres of land. His father, a former policeman, eventually gave up his job to take care of the family land, while his mother is a homemaker. The couple raised two sons Lawrence and Anmol - both now prime suspects in Moose Wala's killing. Ramesh Bishnoi, a relative, told Jupinderjit Singh, a journalist with The Tribune newspaper and author of Who Killed Moose Wala, that Lawrence was named after British officer Henry Montgomery Lawrence, founder of the prestigious Lawrence School in the hill town of Sanawar. Lawrence Bishnoi himself attended a convent school, riding his own bike by the eighth grade and wearing expensive shoes - luxuries unheard of for most.

Americans want to be 'freed' from Kamala Harris, says Trump

By Caitlin Wilson

Time is running out for Kamala Harris and Donald Trump to convince American voters - especially in swing states - to give them their votes for president. With early voting already begun in many states, the candidates are adding a renewed emphasis to their urges to voters to get out and submit their ballots. But they're still making sure to touch on all of their greatest hit lines: Harris on Saturday extolled her commitment to abortion rights, while Trump repeated familiar complaints against the criminal investigations into him. And they both made sure to criticise each other at their rallies in Michigan, Pennsylvania and Georgia on Saturday. Americans want to be "freed" from Kamala Harris, Trump said, while Harris accused Trump of only thinking about himself and not the American people. With the candidates' major events finished for the evening, we're going to pause our live coverage here. But you can read up on more about the 2024 US election below, and we'll be back on Sunday to bring you more updates from the final weeks on the campaign trail. Democrats travel deep into Trump country in fight for prize state. Vulnerable time for Europe as clock ticks down for Biden. Fact-checking Kamala Harris's 'media blitz'. Trump says China respects him because Xi knows he is 'crazy'

Trudeau announces sharp cuts to Canada's immigration targets

Politics News

Canada has announced a sharp cut in the number of immigrants it allows into the country in an effort to "pause population growth", marking a notable shift in policy for the Justin Trudeau government. As part of the changes, Canada will reduce the number of permanent residents in 2025 from a previous target of 500,000 to 395,000 - a 21% drop. Prime Minister Trudeau said his government "didn't get the balance quite right" when it bolstered immigration post-pandemic to address labour shortages. Public support for immigration in Canada has been waning, with opinion polls suggesting rising concern over the growing numbers and its impact on housing and social services. The move comes on the heels of already announced reduced targets for both international students and temporary foreign workers. On Thursday, Trudeau and Canada's immigration minister Marc Miller announced further cuts, this time to the number of new permanent residents. The goal, Miller said, is to set a smaller target of 365,000 new permanent residents by 2027. This reduction will pause population growth in Canada over the next two years, Trudeau said, giving provinces time to catch up on bolstering their healthcare programmes and housing stock. The prime minister said that "Canadians are justifiably proud" of their welcoming immigration system, which he said had helped bolster the country's economy and build diverse communities.

"Our immigration system has always been responsible and it has always been flexible," Trudeau said. "We are acting today because of the tumultuous times as we emerged from the pandemic, between addressing labor needs and maintaining population growth, we didn't get the balance quite right." The vast majority of Canada's population growth last year - about 97% - was driven by immigration, according to federal data. At the same time, Canada's unemployment rate has increased to 6.5% and stands at over 14% for young people. The move marks a departure from decades of open immigration policies in Canada, which has relied on newcomers to meet population targets and to fill labour gaps. Since Trudeau was elected in 2015, his government has raised annual permanent resident targets from 272,000 to 485,000 this year. The biggest jump was seen in 2021 after the Covid-19 pandemic. Trudeau and his government have been criticised for increasing immigration without bolstering services or housing construction, and economists have warned that Canada's rapidly growing population has put a strain on housing and public services like healthcare.

US charges Indian agent in Sikh separatist murder

The United States has charged a former Indian intelligence officer for allegedly directing a foiled plot to assassinate an American citizen who advocates for Khalistan - an independent Sikh state that would be carved out of India. The US Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York said on Thursday that it had registered "murder-for-hire and money laundering charges" against Vikash Yadav for trying to kill Gurpatwant Singh Pannun. The indictment of Yadav, for the first time, implicates the Indian government directly in the attempted assassination of a dissident. The Indian government has said it is co-operating with the ongoing investigation in the US. It has not responded to the specific charges against Mr Yadav yet. The development comes after Nikhil Gupta, an Indian national also charged in the case, was extradited to the US from a prison in Prague earlier this year. The FBI has accused Indian agents of involvement in an assassination attempt on Pannun, a dual US-Canadian citizen, saying Pannun was targeted for exercising his "First Amendment rights" to free speech.

ਲਾਰੈਸ ਬਿਸ਼ਨੋਈ ਨੂੰ ਸਾਬਰਮਤੀ ਜੇਲ੍ਹ ਵਿੱਚ ਕਿਉਂ ਰੱਖਿਆ ਗਿਆ ਹੈ, ਉਥੋਂ ਕਿਹੜੇ ਖਾਸ ਇੰਜ਼ਾਮ ਹਨ ਜੋ ਬਾਕੀ ਜੇਲ੍ਹਾਂ ਨਾਲੋਂ ਵੱਖਰੇ ਹਨ

By Tellus Vitae

ਲਾਰੈਸ ਬਿਸ਼ਨੋਈ ਇਸ ਸਮੇਂ ਗੁਜਰਾਤ ਦੇ ਅਹਿਮ ਦਾਬਾਦ ਦੀ ਸਾਬਰਮਤੀ ਜੇਲ੍ਹ ਚੰਦ ਹੈ। ਇਸ ਕੈਦੀ ਦਾ ਨਾਮ ਨਾ ਸਿਰਫ਼ ਕੌਂਝੀ ਪੱਧਰ 'ਤੇ ਸਾਰੀ ਕੰਮਾਂਤਰੀ ਪੱਧਰ 'ਤੇ ਵੀ ਚਰਚਾ ਦਾ ਵਿਸ਼ਾ ਬਣਿਆ ਹੈ। ਬਾਲੀਵੁੱਡ ਅਦਾਕਾਰ ਸਲਮਾਨ ਖਾਨ ਨੂੰ ਜਾਂਨੇ ਮਾਰਨ ਦੀਆਂ ਧਮਕੀਆਂ ਤੋਂ ਲੈ ਕੇ ਬਾਬਾ ਸਿੰਘੀ ਕਤਲ ਕੇਸ ਵਿੱਚ ਕਥਿਤ ਸਮੁਲੀਅਤ, ਹਾਲ ਹੀ ਵਿੱਚ ਕੈਨੇਡਾ ਵਿੱਚ ਖਾਲਿਸਤਾਨ ਸਮਰਥਕਾਂ ਨੂੰ ਨਿਸ਼ਾਨਾ ਬਣਾਉਣ ਵਿੱਚ ਭਾਰਤੀ ਏਜੰਟਾਂ ਦੀ ਮਦਦ ਕਰਨ ਦੇ ਇਲਜ਼ਾਮਾਂ ਤੱਕ, ਲਾਰੈਸ ਬਿਸ਼ਨੋਈ ਅਤੇ ਉਸ ਦਾ ਗਿਰੋਹ ਪਿਆਨ ਦਾ ਕੇਂਦਰ ਰਿਹਾ ਹੈ।

ਗੁਜਰਾਤ ਤੱਟ ਤੋਂ ਡਰੋਂ ਨੈਟਵਰਕ ਚਲਾਉਣ ਦੇ ਇਲਜ਼ਾਮ ਵਿੱਚ ਲਾਰੈਸ ਬਿਸ਼ਨੋਈ ਪਿਛਲੇ ਡੇਢ ਸਾਲ ਤੋਂ ਸਾਬਰਮਤੀ ਜੇਲ੍ਹ ਦੀ ਹਾਈ ਸਕਿਓਰਿਟੀ ਸੈਲ ਵਿੱਚ ਚੰਦ ਹੈ।

ਫਿਲਾਹਾਲ ਜਦੋਂ ਲਾਰੈਸ ਦੇ ਨਾਂ ਦੀ ਚਰਚਾ ਹੋ ਰਹੀ ਹੈ ਤਾਂ ਗੁਜਰਾਤ ਦੀ ਸਾਬਰਮਤੀ ਜੇਲ੍ਹ ਦੀ ਇਸ ਹਾਈ ਸਕਿਓਰਿਟੀ ਸੈਲ ਦੀ ਵੀ ਚਰਚਾ ਹੋ ਰਹੀ ਹੈ।

ਬੀਬੀਸੀ ਗੁਜਰਾਤੀ ਨੇ ਇੱਕ ਸੇਵਾਮੁਕਤ ਅਧਿਕਾਰੀ ਟੀਅਨੋਸ ਬਿਸਟ ਨਾਲ ਇਸ ਮੁੱਦੇ 'ਤੇ ਗੱਲ ਕੀਤੀ, ਜਿਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਨੇ ਲੰਬੇ ਸਮੇਂ ਤੱਕ ਗੁਜਰਾਤ ਦੀਆਂ ਜੋਲ੍ਹਾਂ ਦੇ ਵਾਪੀਕ ਡਾਇਰੈਕਟਰ ਜਨਰਲ ਆਫ ਪੁਲਿਸ ਵਜੋਂ ਸੇਵਾ ਨਿਭਾਈ ਹੈ। ਸਾਬਰਮਤੀ ਜੇਲ੍ਹ ਵਿੱਚ ਬਣਾਏ ਗਏ ਹਾਈ ਸਕਿਓਰਿਟੀ ਸੈਲ ਬਾਰੇ ਜਾਣਕਾਰੀ ਦਿੰਦਿਆਂ ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਦੌਸ਼ਾ, "ਸਾਬਰਮਤੀ ਜੇਲ੍ਹ ਵਿੱਚ ਇੱਕ ਵਿਸ਼ੇਸ਼ ਹਾਈ ਸਕਿਓਰਿਟੀ ਸੈਲ ਬਣਾਇਆ ਗਿਆ ਹੈ, ਜੋ ਮੁੱਖ ਤੌਰ 'ਤੇ ਅਦਾਲਤ ਦੇ ਹੁਕਮਾਂ ਮੁਤਾਬਕ, ਅਪਰਾਧ ਦੀ ਗੰਭੀਰਤਾ ਜਾਂ ਅਪਰਾਧੀ ਦੇ ਵਿਵਹਾਰ ਦੇ ਆਧਾਰ 'ਤੇ ਬਣਾਇਆ ਗਿਆ।" ਉਤਰ ਪੇਸ਼ ਤੋਂ ਗੁਜਰਾਤ ਲਿਆਂਦੇ ਗਏ ਅਮਰੀਕਾ ਅਹਿਮਦ ਨੂੰ ਜਦੋਂ ਗੁਜਰਾਤ ਦੀ ਸਾਬਰਮਤੀ ਜੇਲ੍ਹ ਵਿੱਚ ਰੱਖਿਆ ਗਿਆ ਸੀ ਤਾਂ ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਨੂੰ ਵੀ ਇਸੇ ਕੇਠੜੀ ਵਿੱਚ ਰੱਖਿਆ ਗਿਆ ਸੀ।

"ਬੀਬੀਸੀ ਗੁਜਰਾਤੀ ਨੇ ਕੁਝ ਸੇਵਾਮੁਕਤ ਸੀਨੀਅਰ ਅਧਿਕਾਰੀਆਂ ਨਾਲ ਗੱਲ ਕੀਤੀ ਜੋ ਪਹਿਲਾਂ ਸਾਬਰਮਤੀ ਜੇਲ੍ਹ ਵਿੱਚ ਕੰਮ ਕਰ ਚੁੱਕੇ ਸਨ, ਇਹ ਜਾਣਨ ਲਈ ਕਿ ਉਚੁੰਚ ਸੁਰੱਖਿਆ ਵਾਲੀਆਂ ਕੋਠੜੀਆਂ ਕੀ ਹੁੰਦੀਆਂ ਹਨ ਅਤੇ ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਵਿੱਚ ਕਿਸ ਨੂੰ ਕੈਦੀ ਵਜੋਂ ਰੱਖਿਆ ਜਾਂਦਾ ਹੈ।"

ਭਾਰਤ 'ਚ ਹਾਈ ਜਹਾਜ਼ਾਂ ਨੂੰ ਮਿਲ ਰਹੀਆਂ ਧਮਕੀਆਂ ਨੇ ਕਿਵੇਂ ਫਿਕਰਾਂ ਵਧਾਈਆਂ, ਪ੍ਰਸ਼ਾਸਨ ਅੱਗੇ ਕੀ ਚੁਣੌਤੀਆਂ

ਭਾਰਤੀ ਏਅਰਲਾਈਨਜ਼ ਨੂੰ ਨਿਸ਼ਾਨਾ ਬਣਾਉਣ ਵਾਲੀਆਂ ਮਿਲ ਰਹੀਆਂ ਫਰਜੀ ਧਮਕੀਆਂ ਵਿੱਚ ਵਾਧੇ ਕਾਰਨ ਉਡਾਣਾਂ ਦੇ ਪ੍ਰੋਗਰਮਾਂ ਨੂੰ ਖਾਸ ਨੁਕਸਾਨ ਝੱਲਣਾ ਪੈ ਰਿਹਾ ਹੈ, ਕਿਤੇ ਜਹਾਜ਼ਾਂ ਦੇ ਰੂਟ ਬਦਲੇ ਜਾ ਰਹੇ ਅਤੇ ਕਿਤੇ ਵਿਆਪਕ ਰੁਕਾਵਟਾਂ ਦਾ ਕਾਰਨ ਬਣ ਰਹੀਆਂ ਹਨ।

ਪਿਛਲੇ ਹਫ਼ਤੇ ਹੋਈ ਇੱਕ ਐਮਰਜੈਂਸੀ ਲੈਂਡਿੰਗ ਦਾ ਵੀਡੀਓ ਸੋਸ਼ਲ ਮੀਡੀਆ 'ਤੇ ਕਾਢੀ ਦੇਖਿਆ ਗਿਆ।

ਇਸ ਪੇਸਟ ਵਿੱਚ ਦੇਖਿਆ ਜਾ ਸਕਦਾ ਹੈ ਕਿ ਏਅਰ ਇੰਡੀਆ ਦਾ ਇੱਕ ਜਹਾਜ਼ ਕੈਨੇਡਾ ਦੇ ਇੱਕ ਦੂਰ-ਦੁਰਾਡੇ ਦੇ ਸਹਿਰ ਇਕਾਲਾਇਟ ਦੀ ਠੰਡੀ ਹਵਾ ਵਿੱਚ ਲੈਂਡ ਹੋਇਆ ਅਤੇ ਯਾਤਰੀ ਉਨ੍ਹਿਂਨੀ ਕੱਪੜੇ ਪਹਿਨੇ ਹੋਏ ਜਹਾਜ਼ ਦੀ ਬਹਾਲੀ ਪੜ੍ਹੀ ਤੋਂ ਫੇਰਾਂ ਉਤਰ ਰਹੇ ਸਨ।

ਬੇਈਂਗ 777 ਵਿੱਚ 211 ਯਾਤਰੀ ਸਵਾਰ ਸਨ, ਜੋ ਮੁੱਬਈ ਤੋਂ ਸ਼ਿਕਾਗੇ ਜਾ ਰਿਹਾ ਸੀ ਪਰ ਬੰਬ ਦੀ ਧਮਕੀ ਵਿਚਾਲੇ 15 ਅਕਤੂਬਰ ਨੂੰ ਜਹਾਜ਼ ਦਾ ਰੂਟ ਬਦਲਣਾ ਪਿਆ।

ਹਰਿਤ ਸਚਦੇਵਾ ਨਾਮ ਦੇ ਯਾਤਰੀ ਨੇ ਸੋਸ਼ਲ ਮੀਡੀਆ ਉੱਤੇ ਪੇਸਟ ਕੀਤਾ, "ਅਸੀਂ ਸਵੇਰੇ 5 ਵਜੇ ਤੋਂ 200 ਯਾਤਰੀਆਂ ਦੇ ਨਾਲ ਹਵਾਈ ਅੱਡੇ 'ਤੇ ਫਸੇ ਹੋਏ ਹਾਂ... ਸਾਨੂੰ ਨਹੀਂ ਪਤਾ ਕਿ ਕੀ ਹੋ ਰਿਹਾ ਹੈ ਜਾਂ ਅੱਗੇ ਕੀ ਕਰਨਾ ਚਾਹੀਦਾ ਹੈ... ਅਸੀਂ ਪੂਰੀ ਤਰ੍ਹਾਂ ਫਸੇ ਹੋਏ ਹਾਂ।"

ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਨੇ ਏਅਰਪੋਰਟ ਨੂੰ 'ਦਿਆਲੂ' ਕਿਹਾ ਅਤੇ ਇਲਜ਼ਾਮ ਲਗਾਇਆ ਕਿ ਏਅਰ ਇੰਡੀਆ ਯਾਤਰੀਆਂ ਨੂੰ ਕੁਝ ਖਾਸ ਜਾਣਕਾਰੀ ਮਹੱਈਆ ਨਹੀਂ ਕਰਦਾ ਰਿਹਾ। ਇਸ ਪੇਸਟ ਵਿੱਚ ਸਚਦੇਵਾ ਨੇ ਦੂਰ-ਦੁਰਾਵਾ, ਕਿਸੇ ਅਣਜਾਣ ਥਾਂ 'ਤੇ ਜਹਾਜ਼ ਦੇ ਰੂਟ ਨੂੰ ਮੋੜ ਜਾਣ 'ਤੇ ਯਾਤਰੀਆਂ ਵਿੱਚ ਪੈਦਾ ਹੋਈ ਨਿਹਾਜ਼ਾ ਅਤੇ ਚਿੰਤਾ ਨੂੰ ਵੀ ਦਰਸਾਇਆ।

ਭਾਰਤ ਵਿੱਚ ਕੈਨੇਡਾ ਦੇ ਹਾਈ ਕਮਿਸ਼ਨਰ ਰਹੇ ਕੈਮਰਨ ਮੈਕੇ ਨੇ ਨਿੱਸ਼ਰ ਅਤੇ ਪੰਨ੍ਹ ਮਾਮਲੇ ਬਾਰੇ ਕਿਹੜਾ ਵੱਡਾ ਦਾਮਵਾ

Canada's economy added 47,000 new jobs in September, unemployment rate ticked down

By Canadian Press

The Canadian labour market exceeded many economists' expectations in September, adding more than twice as many jobs as the previous month while unemployment ticked lower — but digging deeper into the numbers shows employment remains a concern, analysts say.

Statistics Canada reported on Friday that the economy added 47,000 jobs in September, while the unemployment rate declined for the first time since January to 6.5 per cent.

Full-time employment also saw its largest gain since May 2022. The overall job gains followed four consecutive months of little change, the agency said.

Job market numbers can be volatile month to month and don't provide a full picture of the economy, but it's still positive to see the unemployment rate tick down, BMO chief economist Doug Porter told CBC News.

"The unemployment rate in the past year or so has been on a one-way street higher," Porter said. "The fact that the unemployment rate is down a bit is encouraging." The jobs increase suggests the economy might be picking up a little after a "pretty tough summer," he said, with full-time employment soaring. But many analysts pointed out that the overall market news was "mixed," with Katherine Judge, an economist at CIBC, stating in a note that "the headline masked some weaker details." "Total hours worked decreased by 0.4 [per cent], while the employment rate fell by a tick." Looking at the broader trend, the unemployment rate has been steadily climbing over the past year and a half, hitting 6.6 per cent in August. Inflation that month was two per cent, the lowest level in more than three years, as lower gas prices helped it hit the Bank of Canada's inflation target. The central bank has cut its key interest rate three times this year and is widely expected to keep cutting, as inflation has subsided and the broader trend points to a weakening in the labour market. Despite the job gains in September, which were driven by youth and women aged 25 to 54, the employment rate was lower in the month, reflecting continued growth in Canada's population. "These trims some of the potential enthusiasm from today's jobs data," Geoff Phipps, trading strategist at Picton Mahoney Asset Management, said in a note.

Community in Mourning After Tragic Loss of Rajinder Singh (Ronnie) in Downtown Victoria Accident

Victoria, BC – The Victoria community is grieving the sudden and tragic loss of Rajinder Singh, affectionately known as Ronnie, following a fatal accident on October 19th. The accident occurred in the early hours near the intersection of Douglas and Humboldt streets. Ronnie lost his life when a pickup truck collided with a B.C. Transit bus and another vehicle.

RAJINDER SINGH (RONNIE)

JULY 20TH 1999 - OCTOBER 19TH 2024

According to initial reports, Victoria police had been alerted to the pickup truck after witnesses noted erratic driving. Officers attempted to stop the truck in the 900-block of Douglas Street near Courtney Street, but the vehicle continued, ultimately resulting in a fatal crash with a B.C. Transit bus and Ronnie's vehicle. Though emergency responders arrived quickly and administered life-saving measures, Ronnie tragically succumbed to his injuries at the scene. The B.C. Transit bus, which was not in service at the time, fortunately had no passengers, and no injuries were reported to its driver. The Independent Investigations Office of B.C. (IIO), a civilian-led agency tasked with investigating police-related incidents that lead to serious harm or death, is now examining the events leading up to the accident. The agency aims to determine whether any police action or inaction played a role in the tragedy. Rajinder Singh (Ronnie) was a cherished member of the community, known for his kindness and vibrant personality. Friends, family, and neighbors are devastated by the sudden loss, remembering him as a warm-hearted individual who brought joy to those around him. To assist his family with funeral expenses and offer support during this difficult time, a GoFundMe page has been set up in Ronnie's honor. Community members and those who wish to support the family during this challenging time can contribute to the fundraiser here: <https://gofund.me/bafcce79>. The outpouring of community support for Ronnie's family highlights the impact he had on those around him, and his memory will be cherished by all who knew him.

Fateh Care Charity's 2nd Annual Blood Drive Unites Community in an Inspiring Day of Giving

Victoria, BC – Fateh Care Charity's 2nd Annual Blood Donation Drive on the 26th of October, was a remarkable day, uniting volunteers and donors under the theme "Together for Each Other." The event saw an incredible turnout as community members gathered to donate blood, showing their shared commitment to supporting those in need.

In a heartfelt gesture of gratitude, Fateh Care treated all participants to an array of delectable refreshments, including generous and freshly made samosas—a signature treat that added warmth and joy to the gathering. Founder Harjas Singh Popli expressed gratitude, saying, "Today's turnout shows the incredible impact we have when we come together. Fateh Care is about supporting one another, and today's drive is a beautiful example of that mission." Fateh Care looks forward to more events that strengthen community bonds and inspire kindness across Victoria.

Message from Victoria Hindu Parishad and Cultural Center

Namaste Everyone,

We are reaching out with very exciting news about the Victoria Hindu Parishad and Cultural Center (VHPCC). After years of dedication and community efforts, we have an accepted offer on a beautiful property valued at $1.6 million. This 1.18 acres piece of property on 6669 West Saanich Rd. will be the future home of our cultural, spiritual, and community activities, allowing us to expand our services and continue our mission to preserve and promote our cultural heritage. We need your support! We are blessed to have already raised $1 million towards the purchase, but we need your support to raise the remaining $600,000 to finalize the acquisition. This is a pivotal moment for our community, and your generous contribution will bring us closer to securing a permanent space for the VHPCC. Every dollar counts, and your donation will directly help us take this critical step toward establishing a place where we can come together to celebrate, worship, and share our culture for generations to come! Please consider making a generous donation to help us achieve this goal. Contributions of any size will make a meaningful difference and bring us closer to reaching our target.
